

Monday 10th August | 2pm – 3.30pm | £3 per child

Bug Lab 2026 in Linslade Wood

Enter the wonderful world of minibeasts - take a closer look to discover tiny creatures and be inspired to look for them on your doorstep.

Aimed at families (no previous experience or knowledge is required) or those wishing to improve their ID skills. Greensand Trust staff will be joined by members of the Natural History Society who will share knowledge of wildlife. There will be equipment and guides you can borrow, microscopes to look more closely and lots of tips.

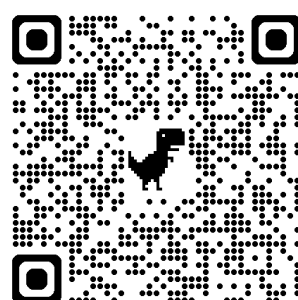

This event is kindly sponsored by Central Bedfordshire Council and the Beds Natural History Society.

Location: Linslade Wood, Leighton Buzzard, LU7 2SD (access from the Knaves Hill entrance)

Suitable for age 5+ (underage siblings are welcome to accompany you, no ticket required, but we ask that they don't participate)
